They are a ragged adventure, veering from bass-driven gospel, through electronic guitar-house to fuzzy Brit indiepop. They are an English alternative group formed in London and led by Benjie Smith. Having gigged the capital extensively being North American residents on extended visa 'holidays', Benjie moved to a coastal town in North Norfolk to work on their self-titled debut album. A more quiet and serene part of the country, you are unlikely to find, and hence a perfect place to instil guitar and synth mayhem.
